

Theodore R. Taddei

Currently live in South Florida with wife Terri and three children Kaitlyn, Kyle and Matthew.

Grew up in Philadelphia area and attended Temple University.

After college, I started working for Guardian Life Insurance for over ten years and was one of their top life producers.

Currently I focus on all aspects of the financial services industry with a core competency on insurance and estate planning.

I am heavily involved in youth sports in the Coral Springs area.